

Biography of UDEZE NKECHI SABINA

Udeze Nkechi Sabina holds a Bachelor of Library Science (BLS) and Masters of Library Science (MLS) from Abia State University Uturu, Abia State, Nigeria. She is also studying for her PhD in Library and Information Science at Nnamdi Azikiwe University, Awka, Anambra State. She is registered with the Librarians Registration Council of Nigeria (LRCN). She has held various positions (Public Relations Officer, Assistant Secretary) in the Anambra State Chapter of Nigeria Library Association from 2005 till 2013. Under the services of the State Library Board, Ms Udeze has worked as a Reference Librarian and a Divisional Librarian at Onitsha Divisional Library, and as a Divisional Librarian at Nnewi Divisional Library. Presently, she is a Chief Librarian in charge of Readers Services of the Prof. Kenneth Dike State Central e-library, Awka, Anambra State. Ms Udeze has presented papers at both state and national conferences and published in peer reviewed journals. She has a great passion for the Public Library development.