

Biography of Liao Yi Chin

Liao Yi Chin is the Assistant Director of the Technology & Innovation Division at the National Library Board of Singapore (NLB). She joined NLB in 2004 and is responsible for the conceptualization and development of new and innovative library services leveraging on technology. A key focus of her work looks at extending library services for multi-channel digital platforms and through co-creation of services through open data sharing.

Yi Chin led NLB's first foray into mobile service development in 2008 and have since been heavily involved in mobilising various library services including SMS reminder, Library in Your Pocket and MobileRead mobile application.